Country: France – General Directorate of Labour

Name: Anouk Lavaure

Short bio:

Anouk LAVAURE began her career as a labour inspector in 1991, enforcing labour law in companies and soon moved on to management positions in several decentralized departments of the Ministry of Labour and Agriculture.

She joined the General Directorate of Labour in 2016 as Project Director, overseeing the various projects to develop the labour inspection system, combat illegal employment, posting fraud and develop European cooperation in this area.

In 2020, she was appointed Head of Department and was responsible for the Labour and Solidarity Division, steering and coordinating the network of Regional Directorates for the Economy, Employment, Labour and Solidarity (DREETS) at national level. In November 2022, she was appointed Regional Director for the Economy, Employment, Labour and Solidarity (DREETS) in the Centre Val de Loire region.

After consultation with the Council of Ministers, she was appointed Deputy Director of the General Directorate of Labour in March 2024.
