

11th June

20:30-22:00	Welcome Dinner - Los Montes de Galicia
-------------	---

12th June

8:30-9:00	Registration and Welcome
9:00-9:30	Opening session Cristina Fernández - Director General of the State Labour and Social Security Inspection Agency Malcolm Scicluna – Head of Cooperation Support Unit, European Labour Authority
9:30-11:30	Session I: Fraud enforcement on applicable legislation Chaired by a MoveS expert Two representatives from each State (ES, FR, IT and PT) participate, one representing the social security institutions competent to issue the A1 document and another representing the inspection authorities competent for the enforcement of A1 forms. The needs for cooperation between Member States in the control of the rules governing the applicable legislation are examined and the possibilities of establishing stable cooperation mechanisms between all the institutions concerned are explored through multilateral or bilateral agreements such as those proposed in the concept note or others that may be proposed in the course of the discussion.
11:30-12:00	Tea/Coffee Break
12:00-13:00	Session II: Co-operation and assistance in recovery matters Chaired by a MoveS expert One person from each State (ES, FR, IT and PT) representing the social security institutions in charge of the collection of contributions will participate. There will be an exchange of views and information between the representatives of the institutions of the participating States on the problems of interpretation regarding what constitutes an enforceable title, the documents that must necessarily accompany the request for recovery and on the need to develop the provisions of the Implementing Regulation by means of internal acts or regulations of each Member State to make them effective.
13:00-15:00	Lunch

15:00-17:00	Session III: Enforcement of cross-border fraud in benefits Chaired by a MoveS expert Two participants from each State (ES, FR, IT and PT) would represent two of the social security institutions competent for social security benefits, one of which should be the competent body for unemployment benefits. The needs for cooperation between Member States in the control of benefit fraud cases are examined and the possibilities are explored to establish stable cooperation mechanisms between all the institutions concerned through multilateral or bilateral agreements such as those proposed in the concept note or others that could be proposed in the course of the discussion.
20.30 – 22:00	Social event and dinner

13 June

9:00-11:00	Bilateral workshops ES-PT; FR-IT Bilateral workshops ES-FR; PT-IT Bilateral workshops ES-IT; FR-PT
11:00-11:30	Tea/Coffee Break
11:30-13:00	Sharing of workshops conclusions and debate Chaired by a MoveS expert Sharing of workshops and discussion of conclusions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A representative of ES, PT, FR and IT - A representative of ELA - A representative of the Administrative Commission Open discussion among the participants
13:00-13:15	Closing session Cristina Fernández - Director General of the State Labour and Social Security Inspection Agency Malcolm Scicluna – Head of Cooperation Support Unit, European Labour Authority
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch
Seminar Concludes	